SPIRACY TO DEFRAUD. Nearly three years have chapsed since the stoppage of Overend, Garney and Co., and alhough during that interval criminal proceed. logs have been freemently demanded by many and threatened by others, and the probable results freely discussed by many more, no steps were taken until a few days ago, when the Lord Mayor granted summonses against all the directors for conspiracy to defraud. Pending the judicial inquiry, it would be manifestly improper for us to enter into any discussion of the charges or the evidence, and, but for a very extenordinary paragraph which appeared in the money article of the Times on Monday, commenting upon the motives of the parties to this movement," &c., we should have contented ourselves with the simple announcement that each proceedings were pending. It will be recollected that Vice-Chancellor Maline, in his of the directors as fraudulent, and that the liolders, were bound to prosecute, and we have both himself and Mr. Oke, chief clerk, have people will be disposed to think with regard to the skirebolder, who, whether from a some of the fraud perpetrated upon himself and upon thousands of others ought not to go unpunishial; and also with regard to the chief magistrate who had conscientionaly determined to hear the the evidence on which the House of Lords bad pronounced a judgment of friend, that they are both discharging duties which entitle them to public respect. But the Times, which ought to be the guardian, it not of the honour; at least the reputation of the city for common honesty. thinksotherwise. In the article to which we have referred and which the Pall Mall Gazelie has already very alily dealt with, the Times designates

"an attack upon the individuals (the directors) in whose entire good faith the balief in the city fortunate thing for the bononr and character of the city if they were. We have said; and have
